HACKUTD

Travel Reimbursement Agreement

Your request for travel reimbursement to come to HackUTD'19 has been approved! Depending on where you applied from, we will honor the following reimbursement rates:

- DFW area: $25 Amazon gift card
- In-state (including Oklahoma): $50 Amazon gift card
- Out-of-state: $50 Amazon gift card*

To be eligible to claim travel reimbursements you are required to:

1. Provide a receipt showing you have travelled (gas, plane ticket, etc.)
   a. If you are driving, you must carpool with at least one other hacker
2. Attend HackUTD and submit a project

F.A.Q.

Is parking provided?

Yes. We will send out on-campus parking passes closer to the event.

When will I be reimbursed?

We will be distributing the gift cards at the end of the hackathon on Sunday, February 24 after the project expo (approximately 4:00pm). We will not be distributing reimbursement after the event so plan accordingly.

If you have questions that were not answered above, please send an email to contact@hackutd.co and we will answer them as quickly as possible.

*Unfortunately, we cannot provide additional travel reimbursements for out-of-state hackers at this time. If we do decide to give more funds for out-of-state hackers, we will let